Inspiring Schools- Aspiring Students

2016/2018

An unforgettable school day!

As every morning ,at 8 o'clock the bell rings and we go to school.

Today, we are not ready for the History test and we also have an English test.

Moreover, we are tired and sleepy , too.

Last night we were at Chiara's birthday party, our school mate.

Our teacher is usually gratifying and smiling but gets angry when we don't respect the deadline of tasks.

On these occasions she looks like the sister of the incredible Hulk !!!!!!!

So, it's necessary to find a way to prevent her transformation!

We love her and take care about her health!

Luckily, our classmate Luigi has a brilliant idea. He suggests to tell her about the schooltrip, we did in Palermo two days ago with our Science teacher.

The experiment seems to be successful ... the teacher is happy to know our experience. We all want to talk about what we saw and learned. No one wants to be interrogated in history !!! We speak in turn and tell about the beautiful day we spent. We visited the "room of the Scirocco" of Villa Savagnone, an old and noble villa dating back to the second part of the '700.

Scirocco is a hot wind that comes from the Sahara and is very typical of the Mediterranean regions.

In the past, the Scirocco room belonged to the noble Savagnone family and was used as a meeting place, for parties and banquets during the summer thanks to its favorable temperature.

Even today, in this room it's possible to see and use comfortable benches excavated in the rock. Then, the room became the property of a mafia clan and they used it for secret meetings.

The room is a large underground cavity linked to some Qanāt (Qanāt is an Arabic word "قناة" and it is used to describe a gently sloping underground channel to transport water from an aquifer or water well to surface for irrigation and drinking), which provide with their waters a fresh temperature to the environment.

Telling and commenting on this beautiful experience, time runs fast suddenly the janitor comes in the classroom and informs us that our English teacher is absent .

That's Incredible!!!!!!!

How beautiful!!!! A very special day ... we skipped the history test and now the English one! So lucky! but the janitor also informs us that we will spend our time with the Italian teacher.

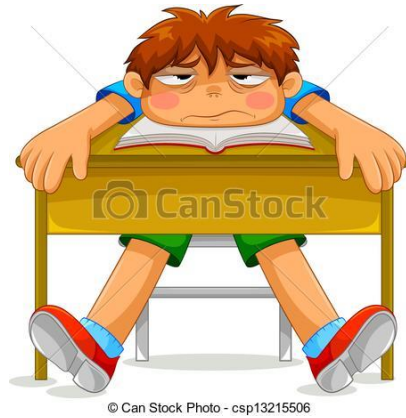

She is very delighted to spend the time with us and invites us to tell the experience we have just told her through a written production.

What a bad luck!

At workcome on guys!!!!

We start writing right away, we have no choice anymore!

Too many surprises in a day !!!

Finally, at 2pm, the nice and friendly sound of the bell !!!!!.....

.....we are ready to go home thinking about the adventurous and unforgettable day we have just spent!
