

A DAY IN MY SCHOOL LIFE "An Ordinary day"

The day began when my mother woke my brother and I up. It was clear it was an ordinary day, but I did not know about what would come later at school...

When we came in, we greeted the teacher and then we seat down and took out the books, but when I was about to take the Spanish book out, I found an old dust covered book. It was so dusty that when I blew it, it turned into smaller shape. I opened it and then... I got into a full of trees forest. It was dark and there were a few huts spread out. I saw a shadow far away from me. All of a sudden, I was together with my friend Hugo. The two of us ran away when seeing the shadow and we got inside an abandoned factory. When we entered the factory we hid under some stairs. A song was being played: "one, two, Freddy goes for you. Three, four, you cannot sleep. Five, six, I come from '49 de Abril" School and I will be your nightmare when you go to sleep". Out of the blue, Freddy Krueger turned up... with the teacher's face shouting out: Miguel! Miguel! Miguel! and then I woke up in the classroom rested on the Spanish book with some dribble. I happened to fall sleep taking my book. And the teacher woke me up. Will it happen to me again?

Why Hugo was in my dream? It was a funny day comented on what happened!
